Little Ones Grieve Too!

Spring is on it's way! Let you little ones help you prepare your memorial gardens!

If you have a memorial garden, consider allowing them to grow some morning glories in the window sill until it's time to plant them outside. Morning glories and sunflowers are dramatic, quick growing plants with very little needed care. Both would make an excellent selection for younger helpers.

Flying Hugs and Kisses

-book review-

Jewel Sample's book, Flying Hugs and Kisses, illustrates a loving family who welcomes a new child into their midst. The reader learns to love him as he grows, then one morning he does not wake up. Throughout the remainder of the story the reader is able to watch the family grieve, grow and bond together.

This book provides an amazing insight into the way in which children grieve.

A special thank you to Jewel Sample for donating a copy to TGBAS' grief library. To learn more about Jewel Sample visit Around the Sandbox:
